A large flock of pink flamingos is captured in various stages of flight and on the ground. The birds are the central focus, with their long necks, dark wings, and long legs clearly visible. In the background, a city skyline is silhouetted against a soft, hazy sky, with the Burj Khalifa being the most prominent structure. The scene is set near a body of water, which reflects the birds and the sky. The overall atmosphere is serene and natural, contrasting the wild with the urban environment.
